What Exhibitors Say?

- “Just a quick email to thank you so very much for another successful expo. My hubby has been singing your praises not only on the day but pretty much everyday since. Deborah you are a dream to work with, you really are. Gordon and I really appreciate all the hard work that yourself and your team put in behind the scenes to make each event such a success. Full credit to you girl you are exceptional at what you do and we honestly can not thank you enough.”

Fine Line Photography –Joanne Woods

- “Another wonderful expo by Wedding Expos Aust. Yet again preparation & organization from the lead up to the day was second to none, fantastic crowd & great atmosphere, thank you for a successful day”

Deanna Sanfilippo –Just Invites

- “Good to see you again yesterday, thanks for the great expo and plenty of people through the doors, I thought the whole thing was excellent.”

Dale -DC Images

- Deborah, thank you for again organising such a successful, stress free expo. I thought the attendance was great, I barely stopped talking all day.

Jennifer Warren

- Just wanted to drop you a line and thank you very much for putting together such a fantastic expo!!! Just thought it was very professional and well advertised etc and it was a pleasure to be apart of such a great group of both clients and exhibitors.
